

ALFA

EXCELLENCE IN FEEDLOT EDUCATION MEDAL | 2022

RECOGNISING INDIVIDUALS WITH A COMMITMENT TO CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

Established in 2004, the Medal recognises excellence in feedlot operation skills and the value of training to the feedlot industry.

ALFA Feedlot Member Owners and Managers are encouraged to nominate staff who they consider to be demonstrating excellence in feedlot operation skills and who are participating in or have participated in feedlot specific training. Individuals are also encouraged to self-nominate.

ENTRY CRITERIA

- ▶ Entrants must be enrolled in, or completed in the past 12 months from, an eligible training course/program (see below).
- ▶ Entrants must have a minimum of 6-months continuous employment at an ALFA Feedlot Member site at time of entry.

ELIGIBLE TRAINING COURSES

- ▶ TAFE Cert III in Feedlot Operations:
 - Pen Riders
 - Feeding and Milling
 - Maintenance
- ▶ Feedlot Graduate Programs
- ▶ Feedlot Trainee Programs
- ▶ ALFA Margin & People Management (MPM) Program
- ▶ ALFA Animal Welfare Officer Training
- ▶ Feedlot TECH online courses
- ▶ See ALFA website for full list of eligible courses

SELECTION CRITERIA

Nominations are evaluated against a range of criteria to identify those entrants who can demonstrate they have:

- ▶ An excellent general knowledge of the Australian feedlot industry;
- ▶ Knowledge of skills related to a specific production area;
- ▶ Applied application of skills or knowledge as a result of attending training; and
- ▶ Potential to have a positive impact on the industry.

JUDGING PROCESS

A judging panel comprising of representatives from both Zoetis and ALFA will meet with six Finalists at their place of work during August to conduct an interview and candidate-led feedlot tour. The Top 3 Grand Finalists are determined from this process.

Grand Finalists are then offered training to produce a video for the second round judging. The overall winner will be announced at the ALFA BeefEx Conference in Brisbane, QLD, on 18-20 October 2022.

PRIZE

Grand Finalists are invited to the ALFA BeefEx Conference on a complimentary registration, with accommodation provided.

The overall winner will receive $750, a complimentary registration to an ALFA 2023 workshop of their choice, along with the opportunity to participate in two sessions within the ALFA Course 13 Margin and People Management (MPM) Program. These are the Zoetis facilitated sessions covering DiSC profiling and people management.
